

1. BSI functions - papers, toasts, musical interludes, "Stand With Me" (Irving Kamil), tapes and pictures. One example would be Al Rosenblatt and Ezra Wolff's poems.
2. BSI Silver Blazes - material (other than accumulated by Tom Stix), for example, 2000 & 2003 Saratoga (Lou Lewis & Susan Rice)
3. Valley of Fear Expedition - (Julie Rosenblatt & Mike Whelan)
4. BSI Manuscript Series - (Les Klinger, Mike Whelan & individual editors)
5. BSI History Series - (am not sure Jon Lellenberg would do anything supportive of BSI at this time).
6. Distinguished Speakers - their lecture papers
7. BSI International Series - (Mike Whelan & individual editors)
8. Oral histories from early Irregulars - need to frame appropriate questions particularly to capture atmosphere and anecdotal stories of the "old days." (Vande Water would be good on this which could be done partially by phone.) Some suggestions of people to contact: Art Levine, David Weiss, Peter Blau, Robert Clyne (?), Bob Steele, George McCormack, Ted Schulz, Robert Carver, Irwin Deutsch, Bob Mangler, Peter Ruber, Jack Koelle, Henry Folsom, Andy Peck, Edward Starr.
9. Correspondence - the least finite of our search. We'll know it when we see it just like the Grant Wood letters. Have fun with this.
10. BSI artifacts - Edgar's cottage nameplate; Sherlock Holmes bust; Edgar's light switch plate; gavel presented to Edgar from Six Napoleons. I have nameplate, switch plate & gavel. Except for gavel that I think should be passed on from Wiggins to Wiggins, they'll go to Houghton.
11. Baker Street Journals - Peter Blau's are all autographed & Peter has stated he will leave his BSJs to the Archives.
12. Baker Street Irregulars' business papers - meeting notices, letters to members, meeting minutes, etc.
13. Baker Street Journal - Editors' files.
